Who is eligible to vote in the ballot?

The Greater London Authority (GLA) and the Mayor of London have set the rules of who is eligible to vote.

Residents on the estate aged 16 or above are eligible to vote, provided they meet one or more of the following eligibility criteria set out in the GLA guidelines:

- Social tenants (including those with secure, assured, flexible or introductory tenancies) named as a tenant on a tenancy agreement dated on or before the date the landlord offer is published.
- Resident leaseholders or freeholders who have been living in their properties as their only principal home for at least one year prior to the date the landlord offer is published and are named on the lease or freehold title for their property.
- Any resident whose principal home is on the estate and who has been on the council housing register for at least one year.
